JAY LENO'S BACK IN THE DRIVER'S SEAT
IN *JAY LENO'S GARAGE

PREMIERES MONDAY 1 FEBRUARY AT 8.30PM (AEDT) ON DISCOVERY TURBO

TV legend Jay Leno is back with a show dedicated to one of his greatest loves: cars. Premiering Monday 1 February at 8.30pm on Discovery Turbo, Jay Leno's Garage explores the world of cars, from the classic to the radical, to uncover the stories of the people behind the wheel – including a few famous faces.

It's no secret Jay Leno loves wheels, and his Big Dog Garage houses one of America's greatest collections of cars and motorcycles. Custom-built from the ground up, the garage is staffed by a crack team of mechanical wizards, who can fix, restore or customise just about anything. This eight-part series covers all things automotive, including classic cars, super cars, restoration projects, road tests, investments and the inner workings of the car collectors' market

Jay Leno travels the US on the hunt for the car world's most radical rides to highlight the passion and the stories behind them. He also meets up with some of his fellow motorhead friends including Tim Allen, Keanu Reeves, Laurence Fishburne and more.

Whether it's delving into the history of an iconic brand, testing the latest super car, offering consumer advice or investigating the latest automotive innovations, join Jay Leno on his journey through the always-fascinating world of people, their prized automobiles and cars everywhere, new and old.

JAY LENO'S GARAGE – EPISODE GUIDE

Episode 1: American Muscle

Monday 1 February at 8.30pm

Jay Leno revisits the golden era of American muscle cars. He explores what started the trend, why they're so valuable today, and if there's a rebirth on the horizon. He visits old pal and muscle car aficionado Tim Allen, hits the drag strip with the first female Pro Stock champion, gets an exclusive look at GM's top secret 1960's concept car "The Pegasus", and drives with NASCAR legend Jimmie Johnson in his souped-up classic Corvette.

Episode 2: California Cruisin'

Monday 8 February at 8.30pm

Jay Leno hits the streets of California to figure out exactly what car culture means in the Golden State. He hangs with East L.A hot rodders, rides with one of the oldest motorcycle clubs in the country, visits forgotten hot spots along the Ridge Route, and gets an exclusive look at the Petersen Automotive Museum's secret vault. He travels the state, experiencing the eclectic car culture that both reflects and shapes its surroundings.

Episode 3: The Driving Force

Monday 15 February at 8.30pm

Jay Leno's on a mission to find out why people love cars. He connects with some famous friends, including CJ Wilson, John Hennessey and Laurence Fishburne to figure out what drives their passion, while exploring his own automotive love affair.

Episode 4: Off The Beaten Path

Monday 22 February at 8.30pm

Jay Leno leaves the paved roads behind to meet some less traditional motorists and their eclectic rides. He finds his inner child in a giant Tonka Truck, explores harsh terrain with off-roading expert Amy Lerner, races comedian Jeff Dunham in an amphibious car, and cheats death with out of the box designer Baron Margo to discover how these unique vehicles fulfill their drivers' wildest dreams.

Episode 5: Beasts of Burden

Monday 29 February at 8.30pm

Jay takes a closer look at vehicles that do our country's heavy lifting. He challenges an Abrams battle tank to a race at Fort Irwin, goes on a high-speed spin with the Secret Service, attempts to drive a fire truck through the winding streets of San Francisco and investigates a risky alternative to the postal truck.

Episode 6: Competitive Nature

Monday 9 March at 8.30pm

Jay Leno dissects some of the greatest rivalries in automotive history.

Episode 7: Design of the Times

Monday 14 March at 8.30pm

Jay Leno tackle vehicle design from all angles and visits Keanu Reeve's motorcycle design studio

Episode 8: The Cars of Tomorrow

Monday 21 March at 8.30pm

Jay Leno visits automotive innovators who may have insight into the future.
