Sydney – Thursday, August 3rd 2017 – For the last decade, E!’s mega hit series, Keeping Up with the Kardashians has grown steadily from a familial docu-series into a global phenomenon. From break-ups to make-ups, weddings, births and all the drama in between, fans have “kept up” with the family’s constant evolution. In the 90-minute Keeping Up with the Kardashians 10 Year Anniversary Special, airing on Monday, September 25 at 11am and 9:30pm host and executive producer of the series and special, Ryan Seacrest, sits down with Kris, Kim, Khloe, Kourtney, Kendall and Kylie to reflect back on the most monumental events in their lives. Throughout the years, the family has remained genuine, compassionate, and vulnerable with the viewers and this special will delve into what it’s been like for the family to live all the triumphs and hardships in front of the camera.

“Since the show’s inception ten years ago, viewers have watched the family evolve, grow and become a huge part of today’s pop culture zeitgeist,” said Jeff Olde, Executive Vice President, Programming & Development, E!. “In celebrating the family’s decade on the air, we are extremely grateful for the fans all over the world who have ‘kept up’ since the beginning.”

On Monday, October 2 at 11am and 9:30pm after a heavy and eventful year, Keeping Up with the Kardashians returns for a fun and flirty fourteenth season. From backyard camping and wine tasting in Santa Barbara to jet-setting to Mexico for birthday shenanigans, the family is determined to get back to basics, but not without some challenges along the way. Kim debates removing herself from the spotlight to focus on her family after the traumatic experience in Paris. Meanwhile, as Khloe’s relationship with Tristan heats up, Khloe stresses over how to blend her two lives. As Kourtney is burdened over how to unapologetically embrace her single life while co-parenting with Scott, Kendall finds herself under an immense amount of pressure as she struggles with being in the public eye and the rest of the family is along for the unpredictable ride.

Keeping Up with the Kardashians is produced by Ryan Seacrest Productions and Bunim/Murray Productions. Ryan Seacrest serves as the Executive Producer at Ryan Seacrest Productions. Kris Jenner, Kourtney Kardashian, Kim Kardashian West and Khloé Kardashian serve as Executive Producers. Gil Goldschein, Jeff Jenkins, Farnaz Farjam-Chazan and Amanda Weinstein serve as Executive Producers at Bunim/Murray.
