THE HUNT IS ON FOR DISCOVERY'S FIRST GLOBAL INTERN

WIN THE ULTIMATE INTERNSHIP AND TRAVEL THE WORLD FOR FREE!

Do you love travel? Are you a pro at documenting your adventures? Keen to see the world... for free? Then you just may be our Discovery Intern! Discovery Networks is giving one lucky person the opportunity to score the ultimate internship and a once-in-a-lifetime overseas adventure.

When it comes to uncovering stories about the unique and diverse world we live in, Discovery is a trailblazer. At its core, the company is dedicated to satisfying curiosity and our Discovery Intern will put this into action. We're looking for someone who is adventurous, creative and loves to travel, and is armed with the skills to tell the story of a place through images, words and videos.

Our Discovery Intern will set off on a four-week global adventure, hitting five countries to tour amazing destinations and blog about the trip on Discovery Channel's social media channels and soon-to-be launched blog, Heaps Of Stuff. Travelling to Singapore, London, Iceland, New York and Italy, the Discovery Intern will visit some of Discovery's overseas headquarters and document their journey.

If you think you have what it takes to be the inaugural Discovery Intern, then show us (along with the rest of Australia) why you're the best person for the job at discoverychannel.com.au now.

To enter, simply upload your best photo from a place you've discovered on your travels, at home or anywhere in the world. Capture your sense of adventure, flaunt your talent for taking a great pic and push your creativity to its limit. Just make sure you submit before Round 1 closes on Friday, 13 January 2017. Discovery will then choose 50 finalists who will be up for a public vote to determine who progresses to the next round. The winner will be announced on Friday, 3 March 2017.

Discovery is the world's #1 pay-TV programmer reaching nearly 3 billion cumulative subscribers in more than 220 countries and territories and is dedicated globally to satisfying curiosity by offering high quality, brand defining television moments – and this is your chance to be a part of our team.
